

The adopted form would be for you to go up alone. It ~~could~~ ^{can} easily be made a very short journey by placing you (as I hope you will allow me to arrange) on the front seat, when it is a mere step to the table; and I will gladly & naturally rise with you as a mark of respect so that without infringing any precedent I shall almost accompany you to the table. Lady Lubbock will of course sit with you: and I hope that Miss Blagg, who has not yet been "admitted" but was actually the first woman elected, may also be present.

I hope you will both come rather earlier than 5 o'clock; we always have tea in the Library from 4.30 to 5.0 & it is an opportunity for meeting the Fellows generally. There are, I am sure, many who would like to be presented to you. We have a Council meeting which