

Equal to 'science' of nature if they are intelligently taught. in fact a man who has cleared his mind from the popular cant of the magazine article and looked at things as they are, and said what he saw.

It is delightful. We have told the pundits of 'science' for 20 years past, that there was, & could be no clash or contradiction between Religion & Science and at last they are coming to see its true when they find that Kelvin & Lodge, are not prepared to swear by the underlying philosophy of Tyndall & Huxley

 because they over them
 so much for their observation.

What was 'exploded
 Obscurantism' in 1870 is the alphabet of the man of science in 1904 if he is abreast of his age, and not merely bound hand & foot in